RSH INTERIORS HIRES NEW DESIGNER

May 17, 2002 -- Pittsburgh, PA – Windy Wedlake has recently joined the staff at RSH Interiors, an interior design firm located in the South Hills of Pittsburgh. As a designer, Miss Wedlake will support the professional efforts of RSH Interiors and its affiliates RSH Architects.

Working under Heather Knuth, president of RSH Interiors, Miss Wedlake will maintain relationships with clients, consultants, and product representatives, and utilize computer aided drafting software (CAD) programs for her designs.

Miss Wedlake graduated from La Roche College last December with honors, and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Interior Design. Prior to joining RSH Interiors as a full-time employee she served as its intern during her senior year at La Roche. Miss Wedlake also interned at Perkins Eastman Architects PC in both their New York and Pennsylvania offices, and worked as an instructor for La Roche College's Challenge Program, which introduces middle school students to the profession.

Under the direction of Heather Knuth, RSH Interiors was established in 1998 as a partner company to RSH Architects. Since its establishment, the firm has encompassed all phases of design including programming, space planning, and furniture and finish specifications. The firm's recent portfolio has included commissions at Carnegie Mellon University, Heinz Field, and National City Center. For more information about RSH Interiors, call (412) 429-3454.
